Historical unit schedules various lectures, meetings

The invitational grand reopening of Room 301, Carbondale City Hall, has been rescheduled for February 20 from 2 to 5 p.m. The "Metro Photography Contest" winners will be on display at that time, also. The reopening had been scheduled for February 6.

On February 3, the Historical Society will conduct their regular meeting and a board of directors meeting.

On February 17, the Society will present an illustrated lecture on the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's Gravity Railroad from Carbondale to Honesdale.

The lecture will take place at St. Joseph's Hospital's Marion Hall on February 17 at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

The presentation will conclude with a screening of the film about the Delaware and Hudson Canal, "The Canaler."
